List of Previously Identified Historic Resources

- 1. Block 76, Lot 160 and 161; Hudson & Manhattan Railroad Powerhouse, 1906-1908, Pivotal Individually listed, State and National Registers.
- 2. Block 107 Lot A; Riegel Sack Company, c. 1900 Contributing.
- 3. Block 107, Lot B; Butler Brothers Warehouse, 1904-1905; Pivotal.
- 4. Block 108, Lot C; vacant Land; formerly the P. Lorillard Company, ca. 1865, 1875; popularly known as 111 First Street; Pivotal. (Razed 2007)
- 5. Block 109, Lot West A; vacant Land; formerly the Lorillard Warehouse, popularly known as 110 First Street; circa 1883; Contributing. Razed 2004)
- 6. Block 140, Lot A1; Dairyman's Manufacturing Building, 1904; Non-contributing and parking. Originally five stories, the building has been radically altered.
- 7. Block 140, Lot B1; Dairyman's Manufacturing Building, pre-1919; Contributing.
- 8. Block 141, Lot A2 East; A & P Bakery, 1915; Contributing.
- 9. Block 141, Lot A2 West; A & P Auxiliary Building, 1914; Contributing.
- 10. Block 141, Lot B3; 140 Bay Street & 18-30 Provost Street; AKA, Eckerson Company, and later the J. Leo Cooke Warehouse; popularly known as the Morgan Lofts; Contributing.
- 11. Block 142, Lot A, AKA Merchants Refrigeration Company, ca. 1902; Contributing.
- 12. Block 171, Lot Y1; The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company Annex, original 1907-1908, expanded 1915; Contributing.
- 13. Block 172, Lot F2; 144-158 Bay Street; AKA, The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company Headquarters, 1907-1915; Individually listed, State and National Registers: Pivotal.
- 14. Block 173, Lot 129; Juan Ribbon Machine Shop, South Section circa 1873, North Section 1887, Contributing.